

Keynote Speaker Biography - Mary Valentich

Mary's 50 year social work career includes being a psychiatric social worker, professor, private practitioner, Certified Sex Educator and Diplomate of Sex Therapy, author, media commentator and activist. A recipient of the John Hutton Memorial Award for Social Action/Policy, Mary is committed to social justice. Her special interests are human sexuality, feminist social work practice and career management. Recently, she has focused on assisted dying, civic engagement and climate change.

ACSW is very excited to have Mary as our 2017 Conference Keynote speaker!