

Call for Poster Presentations

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the recognition of the social work profession through legislation in our province. How has our profession evolved? What are some of the innovative practices we have used or developed? How are we using our social justice based values to advocate for improved structures and systems, the profession as a whole and for ourselves?

We are inviting posters presentations that highlight the importance of social workers embracing change and innovation in their practice. We want you to showcase new practices in your field of social work.
How do you promote social justice and advocacy?

ACSW will provide:

- An easel to display your poster
- A volunteer assigned to the presentation area during setup on Friday and Saturday morning.
- The opportunity for up to 6 category A credits

Please note:

- There is no access to electricity
- Lunch hour is always a busy time and it is recommended that you be available during this time to answer questions.
- Displays will be set up Friday, April 5 at 7:30am and taken down on Saturday, April 6 at 2:00pm.
- Set up details will be provided once your submission has been accepted.
